HEART'N'SOUL | DINING TABLE 120

Designed by Søren Ravn Christensen

Where form meets function, where the ordinary meets the extraordinary, and where all aspects of life are celebrated, UIMAGE is now introducing a new dining table to the Heart'n'Soul collection.

Embracing flexible living, the new dining table is, with its tabletop of 120 centimetres, perfect for smaller homes. Like the classic Heart'n'Soul pieces, the Heart'n'Soul dining table 120 is extendable, allowing you to create additional space for bigger dinners and cherished moments with loved ones. With two fabric-lined drawers at each end of the table, you can quickly hide the mess and marks that everyday life sometimes leaves behind. These drawers also serve as a sturdy support for the two extension plates, providing a stable foundation when fully extended. The extension plates are conveniently hidden underneath the table, making them easy to add or take away as needed.

The new dining table brings forth a new level of style and allows you to make the most of the available space. The size of the Heart'n'Soul dining table 120 makes it ideal for a dining corner in your kitchen as well as the perfect fit for smaller dining rooms. Heart'n'Soul dining table 120 is available in oak and oak with a FENIX® nanolaminate tabletop in three different colours, taking the table's durability and functionality to new heights. The Heart'n'Soul dining table is also available in a 200 cm edition.
